ABOUT CORPORATE MEMBERSHIP

IRMSA offers corporate membership to all companies in both the private and public sector. Companies benefit from technical resources and thought leadership. Organisations can be aligned to a professional and recognised risk body and can assist, shape and be at the forefront of risk management by becoming a corporate member. In addition to corporate membership, IRMSA offers corporate packages. These offerings combine corporate membership with other services such as training and risk advisory services. Corporate members gain full access to knowledge resources through our technical library and our exclusive flagship publication, the annual risk report amongst other benefits such as the Risk Competency Assessment Tool (R-CAT) to help ensure employees are keep abreast of their personal and professional development. These offerings have been crafted to provide members with the tools of empowerment needed to professionalise, grow, and develop their skills, adding to the overall expertise and advancement of their organisations and the South African economy at large.
